

PCA FALL DRIVING TOUR 2018

BROWN COUNTY, INDIANA

FRI 10/12 thru SUN 10/14/2018

Advertisement Posted 06-19-2018

The Fall Driving Tour to Brown County, IN, which is centered around Nashville, IN, is home to many artisans and craftsperson's who have their shops in and around Nashville. There is much natural beauty in the Brown County State Park and the back roads are amazing. There are numerous covered bridges and scenic vistas. There is at least one winery, one distillery, a micro-brewery and numerous other points of interest.

The Quality Inn, 51 Chestnut Street West, Nashville, IN 47448 is sold-out.

So now what? Well, get on the horn and find yourself a motel, hotel, inn or B&B in the Nashville, IN area!

Our event maximum is 115 people. Right now we are at about 90 something people.

We will be opening up clubregistration.net soon. You will receive an e-mail once it opens!

Tentative plans include:

A pleasant drive through the back roads of Illinois and Indiana on Friday....

Lunch on Friday in Greencastle, IN at the Almost Home Restaurant

A driving tour around Brown County State Park on Saturday morning with stops at local points of interest.

Dinner and cocktails on Saturday evening at the Salt Creek Golf Retreat

Once you make a room reservation, please e-mail me and let me know you are in.... (No e-mail, no additional info.)

John Diwik j.diwik@comcast.net 630-962-9224