

Not Your Usual Meet and Greet

Porsches & Pastries

PCA – CHICAGO has been invited by the City of Homewood to be a part of their Annual Drive the Dixie Highway, Mural Art Walk, Farmer's Market and Celebration of Illinois Bicentennial.

Located at: St. Joseph Church, 17951 Dixie Highway Homewood, IL

When: 8:00AM on Saturday, June 16th, 2018

- RAIN OR SHINE -

Schedule of Events:

- 8 to 8:30AM Meet at St. Joseph Church parking lot...17951 Dixie Highway Homewood, IL. secured parking right next door to their farmers market.
- 9AM Richard Haas Mural Art Walk Scavenger Hunt
We will be greeted by Allisa Opyd, Homewood's Community Event Manager.
She will pass out your raffle cards and maps of the city with the murals locations.
There are 8 of the murals stationed with volunteers to describe the mural and stamp your scavenger hunt card.
Return to Parking Lot with your completed mural scavenger hunt cards to receive a raffle ticket.
- 10:30AM Raffle Drawing $400 in prizes (local restaurants/farmers market gift certificates) will be given away.
- 10AM Drive the Dixie Highway Antique Cars will be parked in St Joseph's parking lot near our cars. Great gathering of new and old cars. Excellent photo opportunity and to share in conversation with antique car owners and enthusiast.
- In support of our charity a separate raffle held for the highly desired Chicago PCA Private Etched Label bottle of wine.

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to visit with our Chicago PCA members while visiting a Great South Chicago Suburb. Browse Farmer's Market, View Artistic Murals and Drive Historical Highway.

Come join us for coffee & pastries that are infused with new adventures & camaraderie!

LET US KNOW IF YOU'RE ATTENDING - RSVP <https://clubregistration.net/events/signUp.cfm/event/9127>

Questions- Contact: Steve Kuk - email: steve_kuk@hotmail.com – Phone: 1-815-341-0255